

CIAO Show for Queensland

After a very successful self managed tour of Victoria, much interest is generating around Queensland - particularly of friends and families residing in Queensland of those audience members who have seen the show in Victoria.

The show in Victoria was adapted to link to the Melbourne experience of Italian Migration. The Show is very adaptable and is geared to the experience of the migration history of the Italians to Queensland for the Queensland tour

Preliminary discussions with Presenters in Queensland is stirring up much interest and possibilities of something different and unique.

There is strong interest from various regions of Queensland from the limited contact made to date, including:

- Burdekin
- Bundaberg
- Mackay
- Ingham (Australian Italian Festival)
- Paragon Theatre
- Childers Multicultural Festival
