

UNTAPPED

Untapped is a high-octane dance, music & comical experience for the whole family.

The New York Times heralds the show as “Untrammeled Energy”; the Sydney Morning Herald raves “Awe Inspiring Moves”, Untapped is a rhythmic extravaganza of dazzling sight and sound, these Expert Hoofers extend tap into wild territories - how Fred Astaire might have performed if he'd joined a hip hop crew.

Untapped serves up a mix of urban tap, street style and hip sounds, overlaid with a healthy dose of self-deprecating Aussie humour. Untapped is strong, contemporary, and highly virtuosic yet propelled by a loose, easy, natural energy.

The beatboxers charismatic menacing style shows off his live microphone technique and electronic rhythmic gizmos, the dancers leap across the stage in jeans and singlets, creating amazingly intricate rhythms to complement the live band rocking out on stage. The loud music is a mix of Funk, Hip Hop, Flamenco, African & Jazz, paired with percussive a capella numbers showing the dancers amazing synchronicity.

Untapped will introduce some sassy girls into the mix for the New Victory Season in 2016. The gals will bring their punk rock demeanors and angelic feet to the stage with seamless ease and dexterity, giving the blokes a run for their money.

Witness the beautifully-synchronized & extremely comical flip flop & flipper tap; audiences will leave with a serious respect for the creative capacity of this tireless cast. From Flamenco-inflected tap to African tribal rhythms to vocal and athletic feats, Untapped doesn't just hit the mark, it smashes it!

Prepare yourself for one of the most exhilarating tap show you've ever seen coming to the New Victory Theatre from March 21 to April 10, 2016.
